

VII

Functions and Purposes of Evaluation

Evaluation fulfils the following objectives.:

1. Evaluation improves the examination system.
2. It improves the methods of teaching.
3. It lays stress on proper curriculum.
4. It examines the school system.
5. It finds out students' difficulties.
6. It lays stress on remedial teaching.
7. It finds out capability and success of unit and unit system.
8. It guides individual students.
9. It finds out success of methods of teaching.
10. It assesses success of all school activities.
11. It measures a teacher's abilities.